It Is Better To Give Than To Receive

Tis the season to be giving, and that is exactly what we are doing, only it’s more that we give of ourselves.

Last month our service project took us to the teacher’s classrooms where we helped our fine educators with anything they needed us to do. This month we have a couple of service projects planned that we will be doing over the next couple of weeks.

Mrs. Smith, the librarian, has asked us to help her pull out all the Christmas books. Mrs. Martinez, the music teacher, has asked us to make some of the decorations for the winter play. And we will be setting up the tree in the office and making a few new ornaments for it.

We also have some special holiday gifts that the children will be making for some pretty special people.

Pajamas Party!!!

We’re having a PJ Party! Just before the winter break, December 20th, we will be having a fun and exciting party for all.

We will be frosting cookies, reading stories, playing games, drinking hot chocolate and having plenty of fun.

Anyone who wants to may bring some pajamas from home to change into after school. What a great way for us to end our year together. The next time we’ll see them it will be 2006.

Need Quality Care For Your Child During The Break?
This could be a great time to keep the kids out of your hair while you finish up your holiday shopping, or while you are at work. Send them to Washington Elementary for the Winter break. They play games, make crafts, and have fun.
If you have never been to Washington Elementary School it is on the corner of Washington St. and Elliot. Daycare is located in the Secondary Building in the back.

Winter Break Care will be open during the break December 21st-23rd and 26th-30th. There will be no care on January 2nd. Site is open from 6:30 am-6:00 pm. All children must be pre-registered before attending. Ask for the form in the office or in The W.O.L.F. Pack.

BRRRR, Its Cold Outside
We know we have said it before but we'll say it again. Please make sure that your child is sent to school with a coat and either mittens or gloves. The snow is just too tempting not to pick it up and play in it.
The temperature is only going to get colder and we want all the children and all their fingers to be warm. It is the school’s policy that all children must have warm clothes in order to play outside, and we do play outside often.
